Rules and obligations:

1. Performance etiquette is required. No heckling, swearing, loud talking or gestures shall be made at any time in or around the theater area.
2. Contestants will be allowed to tell one story, not to exceed 6 minutes.
3. Storytellers will not use language, gestures or sounds that may be considered offensive to any gender, class or age of any person present or not present at the festival. Only "G" rated material is considered acceptable.
4. Storytellers will not be judged in any way. This event is open to everyone that would like to apply and is intended to be a fun, entertaining event. As such, no prizes or awards will be given out. There is no fee to participate or to attend.

I am participating in the Clearfield City Storytelling Festival of my own free will and choice. I agree to abide by all rules of this festival. I understand that this is a community, "for fun" event and in no way obligates Clearfield City to any conditions or contracts by me, the storyteller.
